

Nisos honored with Built In 2023 Best Places to Work Awards

Nisos Receives Built In's Company Culture Awards

January 11, 2023 - ALEXANDRIA, VA – Built In, the online community for tech and startup companies, announced today that Nisos, the Managed Intelligence Company™, was recognized in its 2023 Best Places to Work Awards. Nisos received the 2023 awards for Fully Remote Best Startups to Work For, Fully Remote Best Places to Work, and U.S. Best Startups to Work For.

“We appreciate this recognition from Built In. This award validates the investment we’ve made in our people helps them to thrive. We know that our clients and company thrive when our people thrive,” said David Etue, Nisos CEO.

“It’s my honor to congratulate this year’s Best Places to Work winners,” says Sheridan Orr, Chief Marketing Officer, at Built In. “These exemplary companies understand their people are their most valuable asset, and they’ve stepped up to meet the modern professional’s new expectations, including the desire to work for companies that deliver purpose, growth, and inclusion. These winners set the stage for a human-centered future of work, and we can’t wait to see that future unfold.”

Built In determines the winners of Best Places to Work based on an algorithm, using company data about compensation and benefits. To reflect the benefits candidates are searching for more frequently on Built In, the program also weighs criteria like remote and flexible work opportunities, programs for DEI, and other people-first cultural offerings.

“Our culture puts a premium on strategies that help our team members operate at their best. Our goal is to create a supportive environment where our employees are excited about their jobs and having a positive impact for our clients. By investing in programs that support our team, we’ve realized a profound impact on our culture, our overall environment, and our team's ability to achieve results and reach their full potential,” relayed Magen Gicinto, SVP of People Strategy and Culture.
